

Home Is Where Your Heart Is

Writer

Ingrid S.

Publisher

ScribeSlice 2011

Home Is Where Your Heart Is

Verse 1

Tell me, what did I do to deserve a love like yours
We've had our share of ups and downs
Somehow we always make it through
This world just keeps on changing
That's why I feel so blessed each day
You're the constant in my life
You can count on me, come what may

Chorus

And home is where your heart is
My home is where you heart is
It doesn't really matter where I hang my coat and hat
A luxury apartment
Or a one room shack
A farm in the country
Or a mansion on the hill
Home is where your heart is
and it always will be

Verse 2

Darling, when I'm holding you
I feel like the richest man alive
It's like heaven on earth
Without your love I couldn't survive
You're my shelter from the storm
My harbour in a raging sea
Waited so long to find you
The past is ancient history

Chorus

And home is where your heart is
My home is where you heart is
It doesn't really matter
where I hang my coat and hat
A luxury apartment
Or a one room shack
A farm in the country
Or a mansion on the hill
Home is where your heart is
and it always will be

© Ingrid S. 2011

ScribeSlice